YMCA programs make a true impact on the kids, adults and families who need them most.

John didn't want the disability of MS to control his life, so he became active and started going to the YMCA. He has now been with the YMCA for three years and it has allowed him to live a healthier and active life. Coming here keeps him moving so he won't become idle. " Coming to the YMCA, I've been able to reduce my medication drastically."- John Hunt
